THE STATE SENTINEL In published every Tuesday-Office on Wash-

inglon Street, Southeast of the State House, directly opposite Armstrong's Hotel. TERMS .- Two dollars a year, always in advance. In no instance will more than one number be sent till the money is received. Subscribers will receive due notice a few weeks before the expiration of each year, and if the payment for a succeeding year be not advanced, the paper will be discontinued. This rule will be strictly adhered to in all cases. One dollar will be received for six months, and fifty cents for three months -always in advance.

Five dollars will be received for three years; or, three papers will be sent one year for the same. ADVERTISEMENTS, will be inserted three times at one dollar a square, ( 250 ems ) and be continued at the rate of 25 cents a square weekly. Quarterly advertisements inserted at $3 a square of 250 cms.

Yearly advertisers will be accommodated on PUBLISHED EVERY TUESDAY. reasonable terms, which should always be made in writing as agreed upon.

All advertisements from abroad must be accompanied by the cash, or no attention will be paid to them.

Postage must be paid.

THE CONSPIRACY IN BRAZIL.

About six months ago, a conspiracy was formed, hand and a dagger in the other, sternly confronted. We copy the following from one of Mrs. Childs's ance, bid fair to overthrow the dynasty and ensure assumed the most persons part in the drama. Be- Standard.

ing the last vestige of royalty from the land.

Don Pedro, his Princess, and the Infanta. His his comrades beneath. purpose was to seize them late at might, and, with- Holding the office of Chamberlain, the inner to get sight of the emperor." out noise, conduct them to the quay in front, where apartment of the Court opened into a moderate sized ... Why do you wish to see him !" there was not a man-of-war prepared to pursue him. attendants. from firing. But his object was secresy; for on erous by anticipation of yet greater riches, he in- a Yankee trick. What have you brought !" that, and on expedition, depended his sole hope of vited his comrades to carouse at his expense. The "An acorn." success. Once clear of land, he meant to steer his bottle passed freely, and how the party dispersed "An acorn! what under the sun induced you to course for the Pacific, and to liberate his captives the sergeant knew not-for sometime after night- bring the emperor an acorn P. Seven or eight suspicious characters were kept em- to look reproachfully, his thoughts reverted to the and I want to get at him." played, apart from the rest of the crew, to whom in- consequences of what he had done. Secret assas- "My lad, it's not an easy matter for a stranger to the Crown Prince and Princess in the left, wing of detected, I shall certainly be put to death; and if I up to doing something. The long and short on't is, the palace. Towards the centre, on either side, tell my Colonel, to be sent to the mines for life, is I shan't be easy till I get a talk with the emperor; were apartments for the chamberlains, pages, and the least I can expect. What is to be done! A and I should like to see his wife and children. I nttendants in waiting. In the very centre was a sudden thought occurred to him, and with renewed want to see how such folks bring up a family." hall, in which two sentinels were stationed, one at speed be dashed up the street, and entered a church .. Well, sir, since you are so determined upon it, each end. Without, at the head of the stairs, were on the right. A solitary lamp, suspended before a I will do what I can for you; but you must expect to two long galleries, along which also patrolled two magnificent altar, with its faint beams gave an in- be disappointed. Though it will be rather an unusual sentinels, and on the first landing of the great stair- distinct idea of the extent of the building. One proceeding, I would advise you to call on the viceway, another was posted. The stairway terminat- side was nearly obscure; on the other the chasten- chancellor and state your wishes; he may possibly ed in an extensive hall, occupied at night as a guard- ed beams of the moon played with their soft light assist you." room. Outside, along the front and sides, at each among the stained glass of the Gothic windows. "Well, that's all I want of you. I will call again, door and angle of the building, sentinels were star An old woman reciting her beads, knelt midway on and let you know how I get on."

An entertainment was that evening given on lowest step of the sanctuary. Attracting the atten- "Well I've seen the Emperor and had a talk with board of the Gloria, as a pretext for landing with tion of the latter, the sergeant inquired for a priest, him. He's a real gentleman , I can tell you. When the boats at night. It were needless to say that and was informed that all of the ciergy and most of I give him the acorn, he said he should set a great the guests were all brother conspirators. But the the lay brotherhood were absent on a procession to store by it; that no character in ancient or modern time supposed to be passed in festive merriment a distant church, but that in the chapel of the Do- history he admired so much as our Washington; was employed in anxious preparation.

nied by a gray-headed negro, who halted needly after deeply absorbed in the performance, when a voice own eyes. He wanted to ask me so much about our him, approached the front entrance, and, giving the whispered in his ear, "Son, follow me, it is a mat- schools and railroads, and one thing or other, that countersign, demanded to speak with the officer of | ter of life and death."

proached, "I owe you a thousand apologies for dis- dress; and you have selected a strange place to ing woman, I tell you, and his daughters are pice turbing you at this hour, for I well know the strictness of your regulations; but I appeal to your gal"By the womb that bore thee! By the God that "What did the Empress say to you!" lantry to excuse my presumption. With a select died for us all! I conjure you to follow me! A "Oh, she asked me a sight of questions. Don't party I dined to day with Senhora Grijaiva, at her plot has been revealed to me in confession. I can- you think, she thought we had no servants in Amervilla. Shortly after rising from the table, when the not betray, but may defeat it. There is more than iky! I told her poor folks did their own work, but guests were retiring to the siesta, she beckoned me murder-there is treason abroad." At the word rich folks had plenty o' servants, 'But then you aside, and said, 'Senhor Zorza, you have ever prov- treason, the soldier sprang to the door, and hurried don't call 'em servants! said she; 'you call 'em ed yourself a true friend to my family, and there- out with the priest. fore I feel emboldened to appeal to you in a matter After Pantilo had waited an hour or more, his Trollop? said I-we had that book aboard our ship. of deep importance to me. Hereafter I will ex- quick car caught the sound of a movement without; The Emperor clapped his hands, and laughed as if plain ail; but now time presses, for already the and looking into the inner court he beheld a small he'd kill himself--'you're right, sir,' said he, 'you're shadows of the mountains stretch far into the bay, body of troops forming beneath. The next moment right.' We sent for an English copy, and she's and what I desire must be accomplished to-night." he heard the outer door first tried, then forced, and been reading it this very morning ! Then I told Drawing a packet from her bosom, without waiting a rush made against the second. Aware that all him all I knew about our country, and he was for a reply, she thus proceeded : It is most imports was over, he ran into the hall and threw up a sash mighty pleased. He wanted to know how long I ant that this package should be placed in the hands -at the same moment a voiley was fired by his pur- expected to stay in these parts. I told him I had of Don Alexis Andrade ere he retires to-night, for sucrs, and, pierced by a dozen balls, he bounded sold all the notions I brought over, and I guessed I I must have an answer before morning. I will not from the window and was received on the bayonets should go back in the same ship. I bid 'em good trouble you to deliver it in person, she added, but of a platoon beneath. Thus perished the gallant bye all round, and went about my business. Aint pray you take my butler, Gonsalva, along, and obe man-as patriotic as brave-who thought only for I had a glorious time ! I expect you did'nt calcutain admission for him into the palace; he is old his country; and in the execution of his plan, late to see me run such a rig! and feeble, but trustworthy; and you may then assigned to himself the post of the greatest dan- "No, indeed I did not my lad. You may well leave him to himself. Will you oblige me ! I see ger. that you will, and therefore beg that, foregoing the siesta, you will start at once, for the palace gates close, you know, at 8 o'clock." admit, Senhor, that I could not refere. I imme- buth, the hereditary transmission of dignities and I'm treated so well. Tother day a grand officer diately set off for the city, but the mule of Gonsal- offices, and the right of a particular portion of man- came to my room, and told me the Emp-ror had va, nearly as old and quite as feeble as myself, com- kind to govern the rest, were the chimeras to be sent him to show me all the curiosities; and I pelled me to travel slower than I wished. I have dissipated and overthrown. A new and more sub- dressed myself, and he took me with him in a migh-deny a gentleman so distinguished as yourself; and those privileges only which he open to the industry burg. What do you think of that, Mr. Dallas !" the name of Senhora Grijalva should alone be a or fortune of all. More dangerous, because more It seemed so incredible that a poor, ungainly lage of Woodbury, N. J. Anna, wife of Lieut. Barton, passport. But Don Pedro gives a concert to-night, and Don Alexis will not be in his room for an hour or more; but—and the package old man—I will deliver it myself as soon as the concert is over.

with Gonsalvo, you should have it at once; but my mistress told me, over and over again, to give it only into the hands of Don Alexis himself, or bring it back to her." "Ha!" said the officer, "the Senhora is discrect old man ; you shall be conducted to the ante-room of the Chamberlain, where you can wait his arrival." the apostolic graces of primitive simplicity. The negro passed in, and with many thanks the notary courteously took his leave. Dragging himself | Worth is acquired by exertion, and there is no after the orderly, who mut'ered execrations as he fruit for him who doth not exert himself .- the when I've seen all I want to see ! And we are gowent, the black threw himself on the floor of the fawns go not into the mouth of a sleeping lion. room into which he was ushered, and to the senti- The first of all virtues is innocence; the next think now!"

time to be fast asleep. When he had remained in this position upwards it. of an hour and a half, he was roused by the chal- There is something in parting that softens the ing, "Good-bye! good-bye!" lenge of the sentinel; and immediately after, a heart; it is as if we had never felt how unutterably ly attired, entered the apartment. losing it forever. ed, as his eyes rested on the black, slowly rising ways darker or brighter; the present only is ours; ed with as much attention as is usually bestowed mack." The fanatic who thus determines, first influence of fair mercantile competition. A United from the floor. The sentinel briefly explained, and and we are fools if we become its slaves instead of on Ambassadors. the face of the Count brightened with the thought being its masters.

"Give me the package, old man, and look in yon- useless uneasmess upon what was much worse in der beaufet for some refreshment."

his apprehension than in reality.

ciples of philosophy. It is the beginning of a new dis-of the faithful. In Nauvoo, and that neighborhood, the Mormons number ten thousand souls, besides much cattle.

"Good, my Lord, my mistress ordered me not to give it in the presence of a third person"-and the The Mormon movement is one of the most curious eyes of the black glanced at the sentinel standing of the present age. It is inexplicable on the ordinary prinin the open doorway.

With a gesture of impatience at the slowness of pensation, or it is nothing. There can be no mistake in the black, the Count seized the packet, and, retir- Joe Smith. He is a master spirit-and his ambition is to commenced breaking the seals. The envelope was ends of the earth. He has given the world a new Bible short-comings in their angry retorts upon those who he rushes forth to immolate all he may encounter. money or credit, and thus the quantity will exceed nersh, near Guidiord, the seat of Lord Grantley, a secured by a lock of hair, and so intricately folded. -and is now busily engaged in ounding a new kingdom catch them tripping .- Charleston Mercury. moreover, that it was some moments ere he opened the small note it contained. The hand-writing, unlike the direction, was bold and masculine; the

"Speak, and you are a dead man-look up!" upon the black, who had stealthily crept within a the Holy Land.

INDIANA

The Price of Freedom

a few feet of the table, and, with a pistol in one in anxious deliberation.

INDIANAPOLIS.

A YANKEE IN RUSSIA.

to the Brazilians an independent Government.

The following is the substance of the story as the second in the Builetin, a Tyler-whig paper of St. Louis. been the rule and honesty the exception. The leading the fore the Count had time to recover homestif the threw.

The following is the substance of the story as the exception. The leading the following is the substance of the story as the second in the Builetin, a Tyler-whig paper of St. Louis. been the rule and honesty the exception. The leading the following is the substance of the story as the second in the Builetin, a Tyler-whig paper of St. Louis. been the rule and honesty the exception as an independent Government. Neither the old King, nor his overhearing wife, a noise over him and pinioned him to the chair, told by Mr. Dallas, at a public dinner given him and pinioned him to the chair, told by Mr. Dallas, at a public dinner given him and pinioned him to the chair. has the slightest hold on the affections of the peo- With the dagger to his throat, he then securely Philadelphia, on his return from Russia, in 1838, of feeling now prevailing among the patriotic pipelayers. It is the suspended banks, in every State, to resume specie payple. It was well known that the Crown Prince and gagged him, and bound chair and all to the ponder- One day a lad, apparently about nineteen, pre- delicious, to some extent, to see these men doing justice to ments." The banks lie, and are to be compelled to Princess-but more especially the Infanta Doung our hedstead. Stepping softly into the untercount, sented houself before our ambassador at St. Peters- one another! Maria, (the latter as born among them.) were the he secured the door as well as that of the inner burg. He was a pure specimen of the genus Yansole ties which restrained the populace from driv- room, and, raising the window which looked into kee; with sleeves too short for his arms, trowsers the inner court, he fastened it to one end of a rope half way up his knees, and hands playing with cop-Carles del Panfilo, the commander of a Portu- ladder which he had wound round his body. He pers and tenpenny nails in his pocket. He introguese frigate, conceived the daring plan of seizing then waited impatiently for the concerted signal of duced himself, by saying, "I have just come out here to trade with a few Vankee notions, and I want his boats would be in waiting to convey them to the hall, where four or five doors indicated the cham- selve brought him a present all the way from Aship. Once on board he had little to fear, for hers of the Princes, the Princess and their personal meriky. I respect him considerable, and I want to get at him, to give it to him with my own hands. Moreover, of the largest vessels, the Gloria was de- The Sergeant, when he betrayed the watchword, Mr. Dallas smiled, as he answered, "It is such cidedly the fastest sailer. From the forts, he had received a liberal reward, with the promise of a a common thing, my lad, to make crowned heads a when he reached the coast of Peru. Step by step fall, he was awakened by the galloping past of the "Why just before I sailed, mother and I went up minican convent, he would prove more successful. he said he'd plant it in his palice garden with his About 9 P. M a notary of distinction, accompa- Scated on a box at the theatre, Col. Salazar was own hand; and he did it-for I see him with my he invited me to come again and see his wife; for "Holy Father," exclaimed the Colonel, starting he said she could speak better English than he could. "Senhor Manuel," said he, when the officer ap- up, "what do you mean! your's is a strange ad- So I went again yesterday; and she's a fine know-help.' I guess ma'am, you've been reading Mrs.

consider yourself lucky : for it's a very uncommon thing for crowned heads to treat a stranger with so In the earlier period of the Republic, the old pre. much distinction." A few days after, he called "Thus conjured by a beautiful woman, you will judices of the world, under reverence for rank and again, and said "I guess I shall stay a spell longer, tle power has arisen to usurp their places, and much ty fine carriage, with four horses; and I've been just dismounted, and pray that you will admit my of their claim-a power more e usive of attack, and to the theatre and to the museum; and I expect nel, stationed at the open door, seemed in a short modesty. If we banish modesty out of the world, And sure enough, the next morning the Yankee Oh Love, what is it in this world of ours coach and four, waving his handkerchief, and shout-Mr. Dallas afterwards learned from the Emperor member that he has thrown away a great deal of he intended to publish.

is Eternal Vigilance.

OR, THE WRITER BEAUTIES,"

TO JOHN TYLER. Perfidious traitor! curst corrupted tool.
Of a defeated, factions, desperate crew!

Mongrel abortion, thing, half knave, half fool;

Of shape Proteus and chameleon bue;

Was it for this the nation took thee up

In all its might of majesty and power,

From the obscurity where thou didst grope?

For THIS, thou perty tyrant of the hour?

But to RESIGN, and then GO HANG THYSELF!

[Reply to the above.]

ACROSTIC.

By words a minion whose fanatic creed

Repudiates reason, and religion bleeds,

Unknown to truth, in lying practis'd well,

Touch'd with a spirit near akin to H-II

Brutus, if Heaven ever made a "fool,"

Upas thy deadly hate may do its worst,

"Desperate" with damning hatred, sure 'tis thou

Conscience upbraids, and says, thou art not right.

Whom men and angels, Heav'n and H-II disclaim;

From whose foul tongue ne'er came a word of truth,

Thou " mongrel" from the fifth of dang-hills made,

Truth's trase defamer | Go ! thou ART A BRUTE.

THE DEATH OF THE FLOWERS.

BY WILLIAM C. BRYANT.

Corrupt e'er since the dawning of thy youth,

Then go thou fetid mass, thou off-cast "knave,"

It needs no words the baseness to refute,

The melancholy days are come,

Of wailing winds, and naked woods,

Heap'd in the hollows of the giove,

And meadows brown and sere.

The wither'd leaves lie dead;

The robin and the wren are flown,

And from the wood-top calls the crow,

Where are the flowers, the fair young flowers,

They rustle to the oddying gust,

And from the shrub the my,

Through all the gloomy day.

That lately sprung and stood

Alas! they all are in their graves,

With the fair and good of ours.

The rain is falling where they lie;

Calls not, from out the gloomy earth,

And the wild rose and the orchis died

And the vellow sun flower by the brook

Till fell the frost from the clear, cold heaven,

And the brightness of their smile was gone,

And now, when comes the calm, mild day,

When the sound of dropping outs is heard;

The south wind searches for the flowers

In brighter light and softer airs,

A brauteous sisterhood?

The gentle race of flowers,

And tving in their lowly bed.

But cold N wember rain

The lovely ones again.

They perish d long ago;

Amid the summer glow :

In Autumn beauty stood,

But on the hill the golden and,

And the aster in the wood,

As falls the plague on men,

From upland, glade and glen.

As still such days will come,

To call the squirrel and the bee

From out their winter home,

Though all the trees are still,

Whose fragrance late he bore,

And sighs to find them in the wood

The fair, meek blasson that grew up

In the cold moist earth we laid her,

When the forest cast the leaf,

And we wept that one so levely,

And by the stream no more.

And then I think of one who in

Her youthful beauty died,

And faded by my side:

And twinkle in the smoky light

The waters of the rill,

The wing flower and the violet,

And to the rabbit's trend:

The saddest of the year,

His lost its pow'r ;-then hence thon " blank," thou name

Who art a vicious, dark and cut throat "tool"

Willing to wallow in the stagment slough,

For black untrath and gain applause, the while

If thou could'st only gain one fawning smile To what thy base and fiendish appetite

A viper, a'l but that thy pois nous sting

Without a substance-shadow of a shade,

Reason's repudictor! Passion's slave!

To the would-be Brulus of the Louisville Journal

Such things as thee 'mong MEN, will be accurs'd

Fit incarnation of the" Abstraction" school,

(That coude nonentity, that blank, like thee) Where now wilt hide thyself? Where hope to flee

The curses injured millions on thee shower?

For thee, what now remains, foul trait'rous elf,

PRUTUS.

BY G. A. & J. P. CHAPMAN.

DECEMBER 7, 1841.

No. 20.

From the N. Y. Atlas. (neutral.) which, bold in its object, and ingenious in contrive him. It was Paulito himself, who, in disguise, had "Letters to a Friend," now publishing in the A. S. The first of the following "sonnets" recently appeared in in progress, highly illustrative of the spirit of the age. It A RIGHTEOUS CAUSE .- A political movement is now that brantiful Clay-wing paper the Louisville Journal, and is a demonstration, if any were wanting, that rescality has prevent suspensions and to punish them, and that it is depre-> tions upon the high way, and they are called robbers, ban- and they will be found to tally with singular accuracy. ditti. In this country, men club to rob people, by false promises to pay, and these bandits are bankers. In the lent banking. one case they are caught, sent to the galleys or hung. In the other, they are very respectable people, move in the presented, not merely for the instruction of the people, best society, and revel in all the luxuries that fraud-gotten wealth can purchase.

compelled to pay their debts.

It was once thought a hard and unequal legislation, when a set of men could club together, and get from the legislature a charter which enabled them to quadruple their ing, and the result is the utter downfall of the banks and wealth instanter, and reap the profit of a four-fold investment. It seemed unjust to a community that a few men of paper currency without restriction—the necessary conshould have the privilege of such a monopoly, so that while the ten thousand dollars of A, loaned out at sequence of giving to a few men the property of other people to speculate with, unrestrained by law. Trust interest, bought him but seven hundred, the ten thousand of his neighbor B, represented by forty thousand paper promises, should bring him twenty-eight hundred but the people got used to it. They forgot that where there is no production, what is the gain of one must be the loss of others; and so long as all were prosperous, they did not grumble that some had peculiar privileges.

it became apparent that while the mass of the community were working hard for a living, these favorites of fortune were reaping wealth without any capital; when it proved that they were worthless, and their high-sounding institutions were as "the baseless fabric of a vision;" men beconverted into such iniquitous swinding shops, are too converted into such iniquitous swinding shops, are too system totton.

As calm lookers on, bound to the car of no party; with lars around our necks; our vision obstructed by no comno political traces chafing our legs; with no partisan colmittee blinders; we cannot but note the strange aspect of ten Mercury. political affairs, when the dictates of common honesty; the redemption of chartered pledges; the keeping of faith Removat .- On Wednesday evening last, a Mr. between man and man, given upon the altar of a nation's Elliot, of Harrisburg, editor, adviser, committeewould seem victorious party.

the corruption; how black the crime; how pervading the removal of Mr. Peacock, the present worthy postdelusion, which has led to a movement like this, which master at the capital of Pennsylvania; and threathas made it necessary! If it he so, heaven speed the ened, if the President did not remove the aforesaid cause, and grant success to the party, whatever its name; Postmaster, to come out against Mr. Tylef with his which takes its stand for honesty and justice !

receiving the signatures of their respective Speakers. self, damn your impudence !- Index. One consequence of this is, that the legislation of the curred during one of the late sessions of the Legis- Bank, says: lature. Certain vile fellows, all of a sudden, re- . This heresy was considered as characteristic of brouched, was readily caught up and gained instant MR. JEFFERSON." credit. Immediately a bill for a divorce was intro- This is keeping up the declaration of the Connecwas passed, and received the signature of the speak- culous doctrines of Thomas Jefferson." er of the Senate. It was then perceived that it had Seen read but twice in the House. It was imme- We perceive that the abolitionists are very active of the proceeding .- Jour. of Com.

great indebtedness of the different States to the was President, expressed the same wish; and on banks, is the great reason why those institutions the 14th of February, 1806, the select committee of are not compelled to resume. They are above the Congress, to whom the subject had been referred; laws, and individuals are daily losing their rights of reported in its favor .- Nather Free Tra. property. In Illinois, particularly, the State sold the right of suspension to the State Bank for $200 . A PIECE OF SIGRET HISTORY .- In 1836 there 000. That institution is the fiscal agent of the was a surplus of over thirty millions of dollars in the State, and no member of the legislature dare disobey treasury, after Jackson had paid off the national its behests, or his pay will be stopped. The members debt. Mr. Walker proposed (in an incidental dereceive their salary by warrants on the Bank. The bare, we believe, when the Senate was in session following is the account of the State with the bank with closed doors on some treaty or nomination,

BANK OF ILLISOIS, OCT. 1841. Oct. 1. For balance due the bank for warrants paid, 303,269 71 For balance due the bank for interest on same, 32,450 16 $335,719 87 Oct, 1. By amount of deposites during quarter ending 19:895 50 30th September, 1841, By balance due for war-303,269 71 rants paid, By balance due for interest 32,450 16 on same, $335,719.00

$300,615.37 This is a constantly increasing indebtedness, and banks as places of deposite, said: So I bid him good bye, and come off. Now what ferred from his then station, and would be placed in the bank, of course, will do as it thinks proper. One hundred and sixty of these safe depositories The institution is, of itself, insolvent, entirely so, have broken in the list twenty years, and one hunand the stock is quoted in New York at 22 per dred and sixty more may in the twenty years next in one of his own carriages, and bring me back again, a fever, and she died on the following day. Her cent. The bank and State are alled together in to come." mother, who had never ceased to show a fondness their indebtedness, and, of course, there is no hope. In the last another of the Journal of Banking, ing to-morrow morning, Mr. Dallas. What do you for her child, was with her, and a few hours before of any sound currency in that quarter. The only which every body ought to take, it is remarked. result will be, that utter discredit will finally put a "Unly ten years have clapsed since that passage stop to its business.

tional Bank was never so closely scrutinized as now. RUNNING A MUCK .- Only one way is thought, Those who had been in the habit of taking for grant. half the truth in 1841. middle-aged gentleman, gaily and even sumptuous- dear a beloved object could be, till we are about that all the particulars related by this adventerous by the religious Malay, to lead straight to heaven, ed that it would regulate Exchanges and Currency. Bookle de-dookle de bum-bluzzen-striggen bot-dizyouth were strictly true. He again heard from him and on this he resolved : he offered up his prayers, now admit that it was a delusion. That Exchan-"What means this! Who is this!" he exclaim- The future is never what we anticipate; it is al- at Moscow, visited by the public officers, and treat- performed his ablutions, and prepared to "run a ges required no regulation but to be let alone to the vows to his God to destroy every living thing he States Bank, if it dealt in Exchanges, must both wore rhinoceros armor. The state of the weather The last tidings of him reported that he was may meet on his path; to spare neither sex or re- buy and sell. It would deal to make money; if so, was pretty considerable, pumkins grew as large as of a successful amour-for he had long sued in Whoever has gone through much of life, must re- travelling in Circassia, and writing a journal, which lationship, to turn neither to the right nor the left, it must buy cheap and sell dear, and when it had but to sacrifice all indiscriminately, tell he himself once driven all competitors out of the market, it Now, who but a Yankee could have done all that! in turn is sacrificed. He first proceeds to oil his would have only the conscience of shavers to regubody all over to elude capture as long as possible late the rate at which they would fleece the public. roasted f r people to slice from, and hot-boded po-Wise men are aware of the imperfection of their for the more victims he makes the more certain is So say sensible practical merchants, who now- tenes were found upon all the rose bushes, while knowledge, but learned men and men of genous, too, his road to heaven.) He casts off every thing that now, get on well without a Bank, and are willing this of lemonade walked about on stilts for the solare very often very unwise, so unwise as to believe, may be caught at; shaves his head, lest he should to let well enough alone. So real merchants say, ace of the inhabitants. or wish the world to believe, which is as bad, that be seized by the hair; takes a very large portion of that by turning so large a capital into Exchanges. they have learned every thing; and so it happens opium or some other maddening poison, then arm- the whole nature of them is changed. Balls, instead found a religious empire that will reach the uttermost that they always make a further exposure of their ing himself with a knife or creece in either hand, of being based on merchandize, will be based on Annah Sanatury and Regarders and Reg

Postering aid to public education.

OUR BANKING SYSTEM. It will be found, at this moment, that the currency is sound wherever there have been, in good faith, laws passed to verest and the penalties of suspension heaviest. It is resume by the Legislature-it is sound in South Carolina, the truth. They are defrauding the public, and are to be where the "enemies of the credit system" hold rule-it is In the old world, men club together to levy contribu- sound no where else; but there are degrees of rottenness, with the degrees of legislative encouragement to fraudu

DEMOCRATIC PRINCIPLES.

n strict Constitutional limits.

preservation of the public faith.

by special legislation, to banks.

ng corporations.

A simple and frugal Government, confined with-

No public debt, either by the General Govern-

No assumption by the General Government of the

No extensive system of Internal Improvement by

A constitutional barrier against improvident

The honest payment of our debts and the sacred

A gradual return from an extensive credit sys-

No national bank to swindle the laboring pop-

No grants of exclusive charters and privileges.

No connexion between the Government and bank-

No connexion between Church and State.

No proscription for honest opinions.

ment, or by the States, except for objects of urgent debts of the States, either directly, or indirectly by a distribution of the proceeds of the public lands.

the General Government, or by the States.

There is another side to the picture which ought to be but for the warning of the banks. There are two States in the Union-Mississippi and Michigan, where legisla-tive banking has been notoriously the wildest and loosest, that have already passed the crisis of irredeemable bank, the abolition of their paper. This is the inevitable end funds are "spoil," all the world over-and every civilized country has recognized it as one of its most urgent duties to guard the property of the helpless by imposing a great variety of checks and a heavy responsibility upon all trustees, why not then on the managers of Banks -who, besides the continual temptation to abuse the trust of the stockholders, are further beset with the never cess-But when these paper promises were dishonored; when ing longing to make money by creating something out of nothing-by making credit do the proper office of money. sacred of dignity, to feel the rude touch of law ! Is it not rather a gross deteliction of plain duty, a base betrayal of the community, for legislators to allow these com-man, and Whig, appeared at the Presidint's man-How gross must have been the ignorance; how deep sion, and, before a number of visiters, demanded the paper, and informed the President that the county; in such an event, should come out against him also. Mr. Tyler informed the mighty committee-man that THE VETO POWER IN CHIO.-This power is un- if the gentleman and his friends were retained by known under the constitution of Ohio. The signa- such a slight matter as the removal or appointment ture of the Governor is not required to any bill, nor of a Postmaster, they might go against him as soon does any measure come under his consideration. as they pleased. Mr. Ethott departed in haste, Any bill becomes a law by passing both houses and while the President closed the door, saying to him-

State is often hasty and capricious, and its course Whigism as IT is .- The New York Expressis marked by strange freaks, some of which cause a leading whig paper-in arguing that the decisions amusement, and others consternation in the minds of the Judiciary ought to be the guide of the Presiof the people. An incident of the former kind oc- dent, with reference to Gen. Jackson's veto of the ported that the new wife of one of the Senators had the arbitrary and despotic disposition of Gen. Jackled a wild and roving life previous to her recent son; but it did not originate with him. LIKE MOST marriage. The idea that an honorable and grave ALL OTHER UNSOUND AND HERETICAL POLITICAL Senator had been thus caught, being so suddenly BOTTRINES IN THIS COURTRY, IT CAME FROM deced into the House, now convulsed with the sto- tieut Courant, that the principles of President Tyty, and the same day sent to the Senate, where it ler's veto "carried us back to the absurd and ridi-diately sent down and re-read. Thus, in less than in Indiana. The people of that State should recolforty-eight hours after the charge had become publect, that in 1806, the Council and House of Reprelic, the wife, who was taken for better or worse, sentatives of the Indiana Territory, unanimoully and who had conducted with the most scrupulous passed resolutions, "declaring and requesting of propriety since her marriage, without meeting her Congress, a suspension of the 6th article of the comaccusers face to face, or having an opportunity to an- pact of 17-7, between the United States and the swer their charges, was divorced by the Legislature. Territories and States northwest of the river Ohio, Ohio, from end to end, responded with a shout of so as to permit the introduction of slaves into that mirth, and overlooked the impropriety and hastiness Territory. These resolutions were sanctioned by the then Governor of Indiana, the lameated Wm. II. Harrison. A convention of the people assem-STATE INDEBTEDNESS-Specie Payments .- The bled at Vincennes in 1804, of which Gen. Harrison from which the injunction of secrecy was afterwards STATE OF ILLINOIS IN ACCOUNT WITH STATE removed.) that Texas be purchased from Mexico. and the thirty surplus millions used for the purchase. Mexico, doubtless, oppressed with a bankrupt treasury, a rebellious army, and a starving population, would have accepted the proposition; we should have added three States to the confederary, and extinguished forever all danger of abolition. But Henry Clay's influence prevailed, the advances of the Texran patriots were scorned, and the surplus millions were distributed or deposited, (as they fraudulently termed it, with the States,) to be gambled away by banks and speculators, and are irretrievably lost to the national treasury .- Free Trader.

> A PREDICTION FULFILLED -Ten years ago Mr. Gorge, in his History of Banking, in answering the argument in favor of the safety of incorporated was written, and in that period more than a hundred and sixty banks have proved bankrupt. We NATIONAL BANK .- The whole scheme of a Na. are collecting materials for a correct list of them." What was a bold prediction in 1831, is less than > of ham-and-eggs-long-time-ago; at which season mosquitoes carried broad-swords, and bed-bilds venus, and we samked, and snuffed and 'chawed,' the actual Exchanges of merchandize, and become fawn was drawing in the lake, when one of the swans suddenly firm upon it and pulled the poor animal into the water, where it held it until it was killed .- London paper.

STATE "CROW, CHAPMAN, CROW!" "THE LOVES OF THE" WHIGS, little to apprehend, for even if the alarm were giv- much larger sum, should the attempt prove success- present, expecting something handsome in return, on, he need but expose his prisoners, to deter them ful. Elate with present wealth, and rendered gene that I'm afraid the emperor will consider this only he sounded his officers, and found them, with few patrol, and found himself lying in the open court of to Washington to see about a pension, and when we exceptions, readily disposed to second him. The a large building. As sensible objects became dis- was there, we thought we'd just step over to Mount impracticables were so few as not to discourage tinet, he saw in a niche beside the gateway, with Vernon. I picked up this acorn there; and I thought him; and by keeping them on hoard, under close a lamp burning before it, an image of the Virgin to myself I'd bring it to the emperor. Thinks says surveillance, he prevented them giving information. with the infant Savior in her arms. At the same I, he must have heard a considerable deal about our With the men he had so ingratiated himself, that moment that his eye rested on that placed countes General Washington, and I expect he must admire they were prepared to stand by him at any hazard. nance, which, to his disturbed imagination, seemed our institutions. So now you see I've brought it, deed, the plan was not fully divelged until an hour smatter, open strife, and bloodshed in profesion, by approach the emp-ror; and I am afraid he will take Thyself art but a base abortive thing, before the time of its execution. With the aid of turns appalled him, and rushing into the street, with no notice of your present. You had better keep it. some active friends on shore, he had succeeded in yet unsteady step, he sought the dwelling of his com- . "I tell you that I want to have a talk with him. bribing a sergeant of the Royal Guard, who betray- mander. Sobered by fright, the cool night air re- I expect I can tell him a thing or two about Ameried to them the watchword of the night. The word freshed him; and as his faculties regained their ky. I gue-she'd like nighty well to hear about was Leopoldina, the christian name of the Crown power he slackened his pace, until he stopped short our rail roads and our free schools and what a big swell our steamers cut. And when he hears how well The old king and queen slept in the right, and "Fool that I was," he muttered to himself; "if our people are getting on, may be it will put him the pavement. A novice prostrated himself on the In two or three days, he again appeared and said,

"Senhor Zora," replied the officer, "it is hard to specious in pretence, since it ostensibly demands I've seen about all there is to be seen in St. Peters.

ests of commerce, and a well pretended anxiety to "Well, said he, "I have made up my mind to go es of her parents. A divorce was o tained from the "My good master," said the black, "if it rested minister to the myriad wants of modern population, home; so I went to thank the Emperor, and bid legislature, much to every body's surprise. The it hides a spirit as mounting, and ultimate tenden. him good-bye. I thought I could'nt do no less, he'd lady, however, at the first opportunity, married him dy, unless watched with wisdom, scarcely less fit been so civil. Says he, is there any thing else again, and has ever since lived with him on the tal to freedom, than these of its haughty predeces- you'd like to see, before you go back to Ameriky! small salary attached to the office of midshipman, sor. The struggle will doubtless be a severe one. I told him I should like to take a peep at Moscow; recently advanced to a heutenancy. Her father has Men will not immediately perceive, or very willing. for I'd heard considerable about their sitting fire to never since recognized her, and she has but once ly acknowledge, that it is as difficult for a nation to the Kremin, and I'd read a deal about Gen. By. been in his house. On the 4th she gave birth to a notary. "Well, there cannot be much risk; pass in, make haste to grow rich, and remain virtuously free, naparte; but it would cost a sight o' money to go therd child; on the 5th, she received a letter from as for an endowed and beneficed clergy to retain there, and I wanted to carry my earnings to mother. do you guess he did, next morning ! I yow he sent a situation that she would not hear from him for the same man in rigimentals, to carry me to Moscow.

she carries away with her half the virtue that is in boy passed the Ambassador's house, in a splendid

DELAWARE AND RABITAN CANAL.-The cost of the LARS are now drawn from the Western and Southern to

Should have a life so brief: Yet not unmert it was, that one Like that young friend of ours, So gentle and so beautiful, Should perish with the flowers, LOVE, LIFE AND DEATH .- On Monday, Nov. Sth. was buried at a Quaker burying ground, at the vilperhaps six months. The excitement threw her into she died, her futher also visited her champer. That makes at fatal to be lov'd ; oh, why

With express branches hast thou wreath'd thy bowers, And made thy best interpreter a sigh!

It has been estimated that Trex MILLIONS OF DOL- Kites to raise money. Their moral system is good. Temperance, almost to tee- canal exceeds $2,000,000, and the whole of this large the Eastern and M ddle States, as a difference in exchange The State Sentinel, speaking of the session of the Di- drowned. This act of atrocity was noticed by the totalism, is one of the corner stones in their moral system, outlay is almost entirely unproductive: the annual reve- -or nearly three times the amount which all the States rectory of the States and they took care to re-Chewing tobacco is prohibited -so is lying and going to nue never having exceeded one and a half per cent. So expect annually to receive from the sales of the Public gates voted for a proposition to resume on the 1st of May venge it the first opportunity. A few days after, law. At this moment they have Apostles in England, say the committee, who have addressed the legislature of Lands. Almost the whole of this vast amount might be except the delegate from the Lawrenceburgh branch. The the swan happening to be on land, was surrounded As the note dropped from his hand, his eye fell France and Germany, besides a deputation on the road to New Jersey, on the subject of the Camden and Amboy saved to the New States by resumption of specie pay- delegate from this branch is a whig. - Laurenceburgh and attacked by the whole herd, and presently